LOCALITIES.

Spring is here. Lighter light bills. Farmers are plowing. Moonlight evenings again. The tree buds are now swelling. All kinds of fish are getting plentiful. The lenten season is coming to a close. Will you plant a tree or two on Arbor day? Green is a dangerous color for a brunette. It will soon be time to trim the lawn's whiskers. The snow ball will now give place to the base ball. The shower month is succeeded by the flower month. It doesn't take long to get used to anything that you like. Jeweled buccles are appearing on beauty's head gear. Prescriptions to cure spring fever will soon be in demand. The next thing in order for the tidy housewife is spring house cleaning. When a man's best and engaged girl has through him overboard he is all at sea. There are twenty representatives in Congress who are under thirty-six years of age. It is much better for a man to be in high spirits than to have high spirits in him. As to artistic taste and fine workmanship, the work turned out by our job department is unsurpassed.

A Leader.

Since its first introduction, Electric Bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor, until now it is clearly in the lead among pure medicinal tonics and alternatives—containing nothing which permits its use as a beverage or intoxicant. Satisfaction guaranteed with each bottle or the money will be refunded. Price only 50c. per bottle. Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch.

MRS. DEACON TRAVELING.

She Appears to Care Nothing for Her Husband's Welfare.
PARIS, April 7.—Mrs. Edward Parker Deacon is making a tour of Spain with her brother. She will return to France early in May in time to be present at the Alpes-Maritimes Assizes for the killing of M. Abelle.
Her friends here say that she has suffered from partial nervous prostration since she confronted her husband before the judge d'instruction in Grasse, and is now gathering strength for the ordeal in court.
She has grown thinner under the anxiety of the last few weeks and has lost much of her color.
She is said to make no inquiries as to the welfare of her husband, who remains at the hotel in Grasse.

Articles Signed for Dixon.

New York, April 7.—Tom O'Rourke, manager of George Dixon, the feather-weight champion boxer of the world, has signed articles on behalf of the colored fighter for a contest with Fred Johnston, the English champion, at 117-118 pounds, before the Coney Island Athletic Club on Saturday. The athletic club guarantees a purse of $5,000, and will allow Johnston training and other expenses if he will agree to fight. O'Rourke also offers to bet $2,500 on the outside. Johnston, therefore, it is believed, has sufficient inducement to meet the champion.

A Shoe Factory Burned.

Haverhill, Mass., April 7.—A fire occurred last night in the shoe manufactory of Harry W. Chase, Nos. 56 and 58 Washington street, causing a loss of $10,000 on stock and machinery, insurance $20,000.

Railroads to be Sued.

CHICAGO, April 7.—Armour & Co. have instituted twenty-one suits to recover $1,155,000 from various railroads in the country for overcharges under the Interstate Commerce legislation.

A Justice Resigns.

Squire A. J. Gallagher has decided to resign his commission as Justice of the Peace in the Fifth ward and his resignation is now in the hands of the proper authorities. About two months ago Mr. Gallagher and his brother purchased the grocery business of Michael Muldoon, at the corner of Centre and West streets, and the business has progressed so favorably the 'quire finds he has not time to spare for the duties of a justice, hence his decision to resign. He will retain his real estate and insurance business. It is reported that J. J. Cordin, formerly a justice of the ward and recently returned from Philadelphia, will be appointed to fill Mr. Gallagher's unexpired term. We are pleased to learn of the latter gentleman's prosperity in the mercantile line.

Set Him Right.

Geo. Augustus Sala, the well known English writer, on his last Australian trip wrote as follows to The London Daily Telegraph:

"I especially have a pleasant remembrance of the ship's doctor—a very experienced maritime medic, indeed, who tended me most kindly during a horrible spell of bronchitis and spasmodic asthma, provoked by the sea fog which had swooped down on us just after we left San Francisco. But the doctor's prescriptions and the increasing warmth of the temperature as we neared the Tropics and, in particular, a couple of Alcock's Porus Plasters clasped on—one on the chest and another between the shoulder blades—soon set me right."

At Death's Door.

Jacob Glover, one time a citizen of this place and who was a partner with the Messrs Heckacher, owners of the Robinson colliery, is lying very low with pneumonia at his new home in Dudley, N. J. Monday night the physicians gave up all hope but on Tuesday morning he rallied and hopes are entertained he may live a short time longer. Mr. Glover is in his 76th year.

Guaranteed Cure.

We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition. If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold or any Lung, Throat or Chest trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store. Large size 50c. and $1.00.

Doing Splendidly.

Shenandoah citizens who are now located in Cramer Hill, New Jersey, are all doing splendidly. Dr. J. B. Davis, who owns several first-class properties there, sold one the other day for $8000. J. W. Williams, who is in the mercantile business, has become a solid citizen of New Jersey and is making money. John D. Evans located his planing mill too far out from Cramer Hill, consequently is not doing as well as if he would have built it nearer the town. Cramer Hill is a beautiful place and is being built up rapidly.

The Silliman Stabbing.

Conrad Silliman, who was stabbed at Pottsville, Tuesday afternoon, by Joseph Metz, is still in a critical condition, but it is thought he will recover if blood poisoning can be avoided. Metz has been acting very strange since his arrest and the belief that his mind is disordered is gaining ground.

A Cheerful Home.

"Well, Mary, how cheerful your home is. You always have such a cheerful fire."
"Yes, 'tis true; we always have a good fire since we got our coal from Zerbe & Co.'s Mountain Colliery. Before we always had such a time getting a fire in the morning. That made us all cross and crabbed; but now everything is lovely. And besides, it is cheaper."
